

Procedures for program and curriculum development and review are located in the Curriculum Handbook which is housed in the Office of Academic Affairs, division offices and the College website.